Trial Grounds Layout and Facilities

No set up before 8am – apologies for the short set-up time, this was a late notification and we are trying to be very mindful of Turbo Tails’ relationship with the neighbours and council. We are on the same timeframe!

Parking is requested to be on one side of the roads marked in pink so as to not restrict traffic for the residents. No set up within 5 metres of the ring boundaries. Please ensure that you remove ALL tent pegs before leaving. Any help with set up, bar replacements, pack up will be gratefully accepted. On-site catering: a sausage sizzle and drinks are available from our BBQ trailer.

Welcome

I'd like to formally welcome everyone to the inaugural Border Collie Club of South Australia Inc. Agility & Jumping Trial.

This has been an event that the Border Collie Club has been excited to run since the inception of the club in 2021, as we believe it celebrates the Border Collie in a sport that they excel in. Of course, to make it an event that is economical and inclusive, we have included all working dogs as a restricted (Group 5) trial.

To hold this event, the club have been thrown quite a few curve balls that have been overcome to make this all happen in a very short amount of time. A special thanks to Brooke Clark who would not give up on this event and pushed for everything to happen. Even when it seemed like we were being completely defeated by multiple facets, Brooke would not let the event fail.

The community really rallied to help make this a reality and I must give thanks to all those who helped; Turbo Tails for the use of their venue and equipment. Chloe Dunlop, Bronwen Wills, Kristen Hughes, Jenny Pearson and Barb Moore for all their advice and helping to get things organized. Gail Hall and Mick Carter for organizing the keys and equipment trailer while Ros and Tam are away.

Our wonderful judges today are Sarah Baker and Neville Cox and we thank them for providing their services. We hope today will be a roaring success and set the stage for future Agility trials held by the Border Collie Club. If anyone can offer their help today with stewarding or time keeping, I'm sure that will be very well received. And follow your noses to the BBQ for a snack, lunch or beverage!

I look forward to seeing you all.
